PROSPECTUS OF THE

GOLDEN RULE:

A WEEKLY GAZETTE OF

Odd-Fellowship, Popular Literature, Art, Poetry, News and Amusement.—Vol. IV. for 1846.

MAIL SUBSCRIBERS, $2.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

On Saturday, December 27, will commence the Fourth Semi-Annual Volume of THE GOLDEN RULE, the oldest and cheapest weekly paper in the United States, devoted to the interests of the Independent Order of Odd-Fellows. It was established to advocate and defend this noble and beneficent Institution from the assaults of the ignorant and the prejudiced—and to explain its sublime and glorious principles, and to commend more earnestly to the Brotherhood, the practice of enlarged and enlightened charity.

The Golden Rule will contain, from week to week, the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York, and also for other States, prepared expressly for its columns; accounts of the institution of new Lodges and Encampments, Celebrations, &c., and all intelligence pertaining to particular Lodges and the Order in general; and occasionally a complete Directory of all the Lodges and Encampments in the United States will be given. It will also illustrate and explain the Laws, Usages and Custom of the Order; and, in a word, will present to the Brotherhood all information in this direction which can be desired.

Its Literary Department will be filled with interesting Original Tales of the Order, illustrating its benevolent principles; Popular Tales, Choice Miscellany, the rarest Gems Poetry from the English Magazines, Sketches of Travel, Anecdote, &c., and occasionally illustrated with beautiful Wood Engravings. This department will also embrace many original Articles, Tales, &c., prepared by the most eminent litterateurs of the country. Being equal in its Literary character to any weekly in the country, and being thus perfect in its Odd-Fellowship department, it will be worthy a place on the table of every brother of the Order.

The Golden Rule is published every Saturday, at 24 Ann street, on a double-medium sheet of 16 large octavo pages, making two handsome Library volumes a year, 416 pages each, with a title page and a copious index. It is under the able Editorial superintendence of Rev. Bro. A. C. L. ARNOLD, P. C. P., assisted by the most brilliant pens in the Order.

☞ PREMIUMS. ☜
